

OBJECTIVES

Personal data is collected via the Petromarine Nigeria Limited website, www.petromarineltd.com, and cookies are used. We respect the privacy of our website visitors, to this end, your personal data collected by us is carefully processed in accordance with the requirements of the Nigeria Data Protection Regulation and the Global Data Protection Regulation.

What is a cookie?

Cookies are small data files that many internet sites automatically download to a user's computer, phone or tablet's hard disk. They are primarily used in helping web sites recognise a user who has visited the web site previously, for example to simplify the logging on process for registered users. They can store account and password information. Most web browsers automatically accept cookies. The Petromarine Nigeria Limited site uses cookies so that we can better service your return to the site (further details on the exact cookies and their purposes are set out below).

You do not have to accept cookies but without accepting them you may experience reduced site functionality. If you do wish to reject the cookies, then please read the information that comes with your browser software to see how you can turn off the automatic download feature.

What cookies will Petromarine Nigeria Limited site use and for what purposes?

Petromarine Nigeria Limited site uses several different cookies to improve the user experience and help us see what is popular:

- Single session cookies - these cookies enable the site to keep track of user movement from page to page in order to ensure user is not asked for the same information previously given during visit to the site. Cookies allows users to proceed through the site quickly and easily without having to authenticate or reprocess each new area visited. Petromarine Nigeria Limited may use the cookies to analyse user behaviour, such as which pages have been visited during the session, in order to improve user overall experience - for example, enabling IT to determine and display more relevant content.
- Remember me cookies - these cookies enable the site to remember User personal preferences such as log-in details in order to improve the user experience - for example, by avoiding User having to re-enter these details on each visit.
- Persistent cookies - these enables Petromarine Nigeria Limited to collect information such as number of visitors to the site and pages visited in order to analyse user behaviour. This information is collected in an anonymous form and will be collated with similar information received from other users to enable Petromarine Nigeria Limited to compile reports in order to develop and improve user experience by displaying more tailored and relevant content for example.

How long will the cookies remain on User computer?

The cookies will remain in the cookies file of User browser after closing the browser and will become active again when the site is reopened, until removed. The cookie(s) can be deleted at any time by User. The cookie(s) will not collect any information when Users are not accessing the site.

Third party cookies

The single session and persistent cookies are provided on Petromarine Nigeria Limited's behalf by a trusted third-party service provider to aid in the reporting of user behaviour on the site. This behaviour is analysed to provide an improved user experience. The information collected is not linked to personally identifiable information.
